

Crescendo Operatic Society's 20th Anniversary Gala

Opening Night of The Merry Widow

Friday, June 20 | 6:30 PM | $60 per ticket (formal dress (black tie) is required to attend)

Join us for an unforgettable evening of music, elegance, and celebration as we mark 20 years of Crescendo Operatic Society with a gala performance of Franz Lehár's beloved operetta, The Merry Widow.

Step Into the World of Pontevedro...

Set in the glittering Pontevedrian Embassy in Paris, this immersive gala experience invites you to become part of the story. From the moment you arrive, you'll be seated at your own table—as if attending the grand party at the heart of the operetta—surrounded by charm, elegance, and operatic enchantment.

Gala Schedule:

- 6:30 PM – Embassy Cocktails Begin
Guests will enjoy a sparkling beverage (up to two glasses per guest, alcoholic or non-alcoholic) and elegant canapés served tableside.
- 7:00 PM – Curtain Rises on The Merry Widow
The performance begins. Please note: no food or beverage service will take place during the show.
- 8:15 PM (Approx.) – Intermission Celebration
Raise a toast to 20 years of music! All guests will be served birthday cake alongside coffee or tea in celebration of Crescendo Operatic Society's milestone anniversary.
- Post-Show – Meet the Cast
After the final bows, mingle and take photos with the cast of The Merry Widow in a festive meet-and-greet to cap off the evening.

Your Gala Ticket Includes:

- Reserved table seating inside the immersive performance space
- Two glasses of sparkling beverage (alcoholic or non-alcoholic)
- A selection of hors d'oeuvres served at your table
- Birthday cake with coffee or tea at intermission
- Exclusive post-show cast meet & greet
- A full performance of Franz Lehár's The Merry Widow

Tickets: $60

Celebrate two decades of Crescendo Operatic Society with a night of elegance, laughter, and operatic delight—in the heart of Paris, brought to life on stage.
